Dear Dr. Johnson:

While I know that you have recently received a letter from Mr. Dulles in regard to your letter of 6 September, I wanted to express my appreciation for your kind words in your letter to me of 22 September.

I recall with much pleasure, our discussions at [redacted]

My assignment here has been one of great interest. Among the things which make it so pleasant are the fine people with whom we come in contact, such as yourself.

Sincerely,

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

My dear General:

I was so happy to have your note of September 12th and to learn that some action was being taken on my recent communication.

I remember so well meeting you one evening just before you joined CIA. I thought at the time what a marvelous break it would be for Allen to have you with him. At that time, as you may recall, I was trying to get the Information program reorganized and out of the State Department.

With warmest personal regards,

Sincerely,

Robert L. Johnson
